

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE FINGER.

Teachers told us they found touch sensitive screens could be temperamental. 'We had to ask the kids to wipe their hands on the "magic tissue" before they touched the board.'

Educational specialists told us children's writing is best developed by holding and using a pen from a young age.

So we designed our unique battery-free, wire-free mouse pen.

It's cuddly and comfortable. (The product tester and his willing band of student helpers tested many prototypes before pronouncing it 'just right'.)

It writes just like a pen. And it acts just like a mouse.

Drag and drop elements, highlight, or open tools, pages, dvds, sound...

And click the button for additional helpful tools - including on-screen guidance when you're learning your way around.

A cursor means you always know where on screen you are - even when the pen's not touching it.

And it's highly, highly accurate and precise. So you can measure and mark on screen to the millilitre or degree. Spot on.

(AND CERTAINLY CLEANER.)
